I walked beneath the golden trees
And felt that this could never be
For what reason am I here?
Is it for my life, or just a leer?

All that life was meant to be
Reveals itself, not to me
The shortning days fill my needs;
I find comfort in the changing trees.

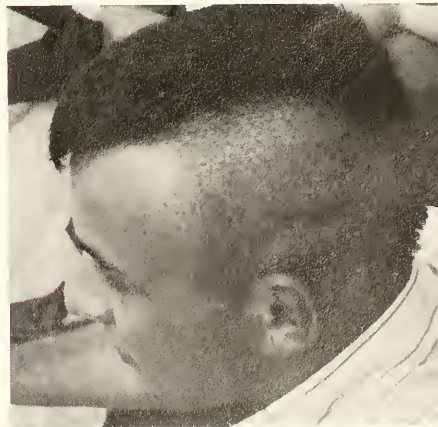

For like these trees, my life must change
And I too will feel the pain;
But another day may soon reveal
That this too, is still unreal

The winter blast had scarce begun
When I felt my heart was stung
Through these months, I'd worked for what
I still felt, life was unjust

...and the trees glimmering with light,
...and the snow, the hills with woe,
...the quiet, all the things are
...as to me, the man on the tree

For this life, although it is mine;
Cannot remain deep inside,
I must bare the real me;
Not some forgotten unreality.

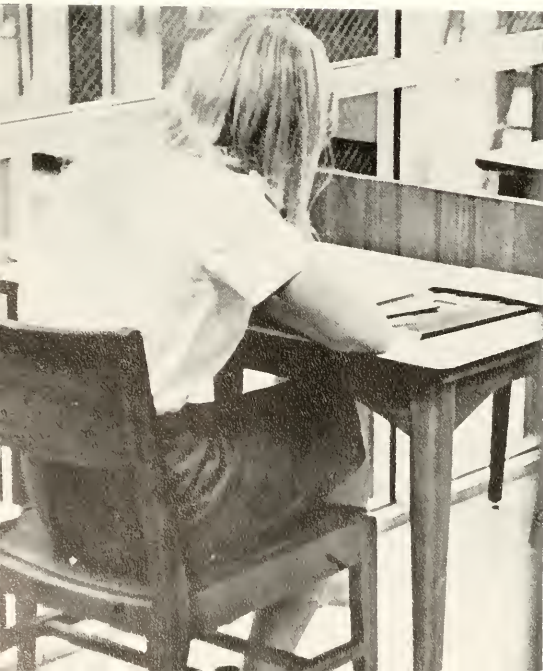

And with the thawing winds of spring
The naked trees again were green
My quickening heartbeat fast revealed;
That I had found some ideals.

These ideals may not be great
But they are an opening at the gate;
And I will try to test this road,
To lead me from this path I've trod.

To some these times may leave a void.
To others they bring unending joy.
But what I've found inside of me
Is not unlike the changing trees.

Dedication

DR. B. FRANKLIN LOWE, JR.

To one who has performed his official duties with dispatch and perpetual good humor, who has given generously of himself in his counseling with students and others, we, the staff of the 1969 Chowanoka, dedicate this edition to the Dean of the College, Dr. B. Franklin Lowe, Jr. With gratitude and appreciation, we present this volume.

Braves Have A Disappointing Season

The students at Chowan felt a crushing blow from the unsuccessful Brave football season. Despite the superb coaching and hard playing, the team's record wound up on the minus side of the ledger. This is not, by any means, to say that it was a poor season.

The Braves went to Apprentice to start the season only to be defeated by the Shipbuilders with a score of 20-9. After that Chowan surprisingly grabbed a victory from Baltimore. The Baltimore Red Devils won the game 33-7 but used ineligible players giving us the victory by forfeit. With this fortunate bit of luck the Braves were looking for a real victory. They found it at a home game against the Potomac State Catamounts. The Braves took command from the opening kickoff to unleash a grueling ground attack that brought the Catamounts to their knees with a 35 point margin. The final score? A beautiful 48-13 tally.

After a good solid victory the Braves traveled to Gardner-Webb only to find their third defeat with a tally of 21-0. The Braves returned unhappy, but a devoted football team.

Ferrum was the next opposing team to come to Chowan. Ferrum ranked first among the nation's junior college football powers but Chowan Braves gave them a scare with a fighting score. Chowan defeated the Panthers in statistics but lost to a tally of 45-27. With the shock of defeat the Braves played Lees-McRae for Homecoming. The field was slick with mud which slowed the Braves down giving Lees-McRae the victory with a heartbreaking score of 27-0. Mad with revenge the Braves scalped the undefeated Pirates with a final score of 28-7.

With confidence in their blood the Braves sweep down to Montgomery to deliver a crushing blow to the Knights with a narrow victory of 39-35. The Braves returned only to be defeated by Wesley's Wolverines the following weekend with a score of 20-6.

The Frederick Military team ends Chowan's season by an upset, catching the Braves from behind bringing the score to a tally of 20-7. The Braves did a spectacular job of using their wits in faking and ran circles around the Culbs for several exciting plays. Unfortunately this game did not provide a happy ending for the Braves.

Next year the Braves will be equipped for a better season.

BASKETBALL

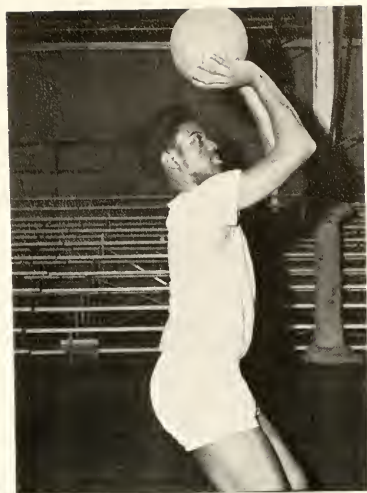

1969

Basketball

. . . a wrap-up

Chowan College's basketball program for 1968-69 introduced one of the best squads of recent years and came through with a record matching any in the school's round-ball history. The team that engineered the 16-9 won-lost ledger relied heavily on a number of first year men held together by a small, but energetic band of sophomores and by Louis Fiore and Harry Gray. The squad indicated their fine potential during a pre-season scrimmage with a powerful Naval Amphibious Force dominated by senior college stars from every region of the country. Handling the powerful Gators' offense and defense amazingly well, the Braves gave the all-Navy contenders all they could ask for until late in the second half. At that point, the Braves coach benched all those he knew he would have to play vital roles in the up-coming Mt. Olive Invitational Tourney starting the next evening.

Through the early part of the schedule Chohan tried a number of different playing combinations which were to no avail. They had the players, but couldn't jell together until the mid-point of the season in a game with Louisburg. The Braves, down by 15 at half-time, fought back to within a point on two occasions, but the struggle was not quite enough and the Hurricanes won 95-91. But the Braves had found their combination, and went on to victory in every regular season contest through the remainder to their schedule, including wins over tall and proud William and Mary and East Carolina Frosh quints and a big one at Ferrum, the first over a Panther five in five years and breaking a 51 game home victory skein. Chohan went on to oust College of the Albermarle in the conference tournament opening night. In the semi-finals however, the Braves were dumped by Ferrum 103-96. Chohan had started the game as though they were determined to represent the school and conference at the Region 10 tourney a week later. The Braves forged a small break in high gear and William Brown man-handling the Panther defense, spurred to a commanding 13 point lead.

The overflow crowd comprised mostly of loyal Chohan students and followers roared approval at the dominance of the Braves. But the Braves ran into difficulty the rest of that half and the Panthers gnawed away at the margin until only a four point difference separated the teams at halftime. A couple bad breaks cost them ball possession and the Panthers took advantage of the opportunities to pull safely out of reach.

The defeat ended a very successful season, and with most of those who figured prominently in the success, coming back for an encore next year, the Braves and their fans have plenty to look forward to.

William Brown scored .981 field goals for Chowan this season, making him number one point maker.

These are all the Sophomores on the team: left to right: Louis Fiore, Howard Glover (did not finish season), Pat Henry and Russ Hodges.

Although Flip did not score the most field goals he did not miss out on his share, he made 139 in all.

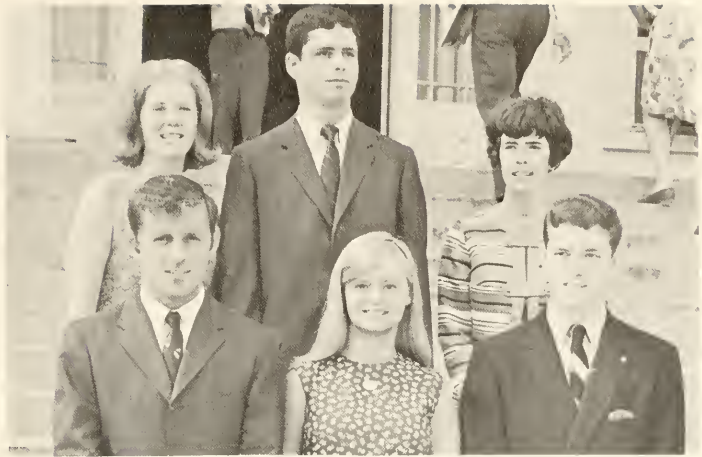

Mike Bennette managed to get down court fast to be in the clear like that. Do you think he made it? You bet he did!

Delta Psi Omega is a national dramatic honorary fraternity, founded in 1929. Today there are over two hundred chapters in the junior colleges of America—nine in the State of North Carolina.

One of the main objectives of Delta Psi Omega is to give students adequate recognition for their work in promoting college theatre. Each member must meet certain requirements to gain admission to Delta Psi Omega, and must also maintain these standards throughout his two years at Chowan.

THE CHOWAN PLAYERS

Students who are interested in any form of dramatics, ranging from the building of scenery to the interpretation of a role, are known as The Chowan Players. Their director, Mrs. Edith Larson, tries to (1) provide a dramatic training ground for the students, and to (2) produce various styles and periods of dramatic activities over their two year period at Chowan College.

For the 1968-69 season "Life With Father" was entered in the American College Theatre Festival which was held in Greensboro, N. C., one of the centers for Region X.

Through the efforts of the Chowan Players, the back stage area has been painted and enlarged to include dressing rooms, a make-up room, and storage space for costumes, furniture and props.

These pages are in honor of Preston Hunter whose faithful work on this and last year's annual has been unceasing. He has given many hours of his time to this publication and because of this The Chowanoka staff feels he should be honored.

One can scarcely imagine the many faces and processes that must be taken to arrive at a fine product. It is with determination and fervor that such a publication as this must be approached. Preston has demanded this kind of perfection, and we hope that we have reached it to some degree. He has shown determination and willingness to work for what he believes in and to reach the highest standards possible for that belief.

Without his unceasing help and guidance we would not have made it to press. It is for these reasons that we wish to show him as we have seen him on these pages.

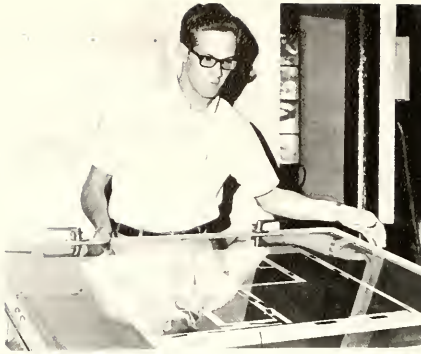

It is on behalf of the staff that we wish for Preston the best of luck in the future. We are confident that he will succeed in whatever he attempts.

T R A C K

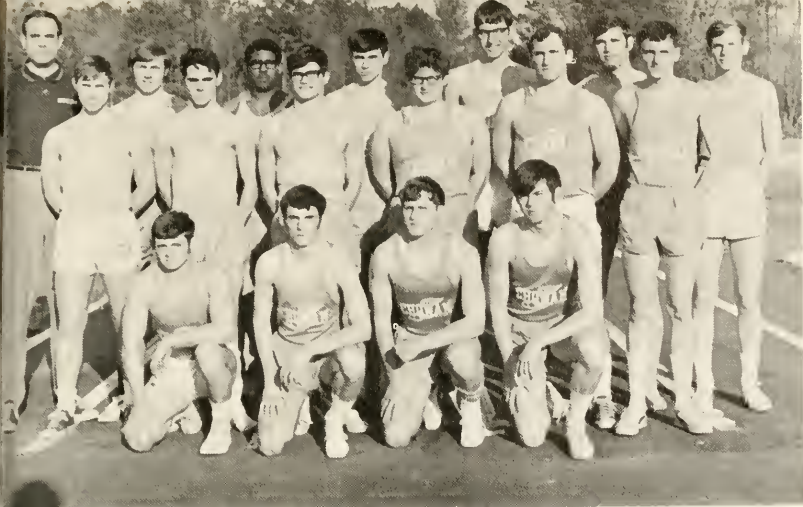

The Chowan track program has been enhanced with a new quarter mile hard surface track. The new facility should stimulate interest which will be reflected in the years to come. In 1969, the Braves "Cindermen" are led by distance man Hugh Wade, jumper and sprinter Ronald Joyner, supported by a cast of sixteen other track hopefuls to comprise the Braves team. In addition to Wade, the Braves distance runners have been George Skinner, and Martin Aderhold. The field events have been led by Ronald Joyner, John Thornton and others.

Wade was our number one man on the Cross Country "Harriers" and has been working toward the national meet in Kansas. Richard Binder, who nearly qualified for the national meet last year, and Ernest Overbey make up the best hurdling team Chowan has had.

Martin Aderhold was a real discovery and 1969 presents his first venture in track but he displayed a great deal of determination and desire to become an outstanding distance runner. Steve Shaw, who has shown promise as the top middle distance runner, helped the Braves a great deal in the 140 and mile relay. Other boys who competed for the first time in a Chowan uniform were javalin throwers Thornton, Tiller and Gangaware.

The Braves' schedule included dual meets with Frederick Military, Christopher Military, and Sand Hills Community College.

Members of the track team are, front row, kneeling: freshman Richard Thornton, Durham; freshman Martin Aderhold of Ridgewood, N. J.; freshman Steve Smith of Sanford; sophomore Hugh Wade of Newport News, Va.; second row, left to right: freshman Robert Gangaware of Wilmington, Del.; sophomore Ronald Joyner of Richmond, Va.; sophomore Strata Faddis of South Hill, Va.; freshman Jim Hurry, Neptune, N. J.; freshman Joe Tiller of Richmond, Va.; Robert Masse, freshman of Richmond, Va.; third row, left to right: Coach Bill McCraw; freshman Steve Shaw of Richmond, Va.; freshman Leon Boyd of Gloucester, Va.; sophomore Rick Binder of Virginia Beach, Va.; freshman Ernest Overby of Richmond, Va.; sophomore George Skinner of Portsmouth, Va.; and Ray Sizemore of Halifax, Va.

Robert Masse and Steve Shaw are on the line ready to begin the 140 run.

I do it just for Kicks.

TENNIS

1969

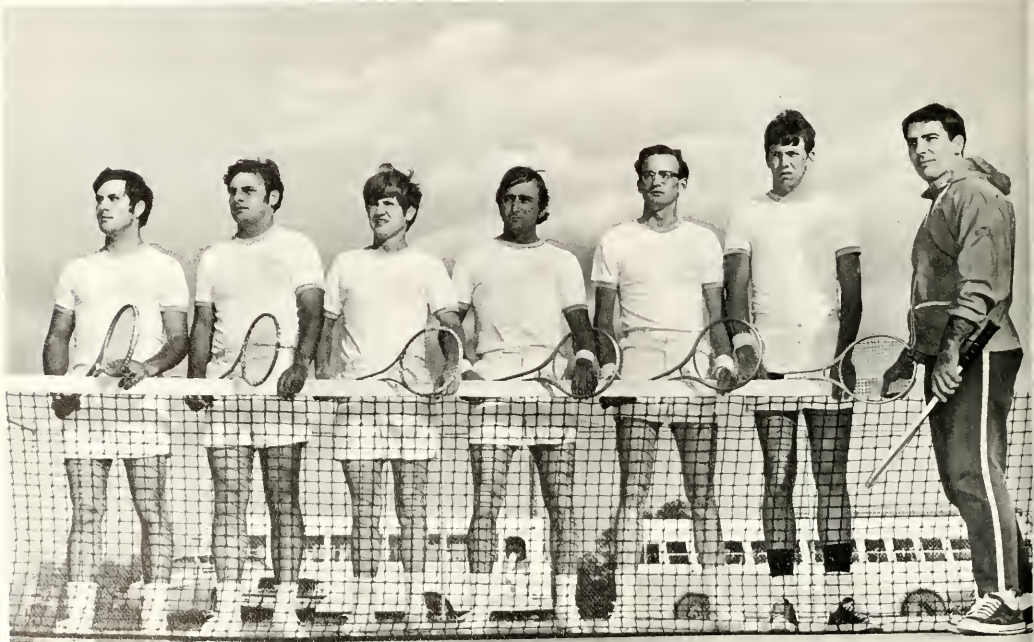

Coach Samuel Green and the Chowan Braves entered the 1969 season with strong hopes of winning the Conference Championship like they did last year. The only returning sophomores are Harry Gray and Grant Upchurch. We have two other sophomores that we did not have on the team last year, they are Fred Goddin and Tommy Garner.

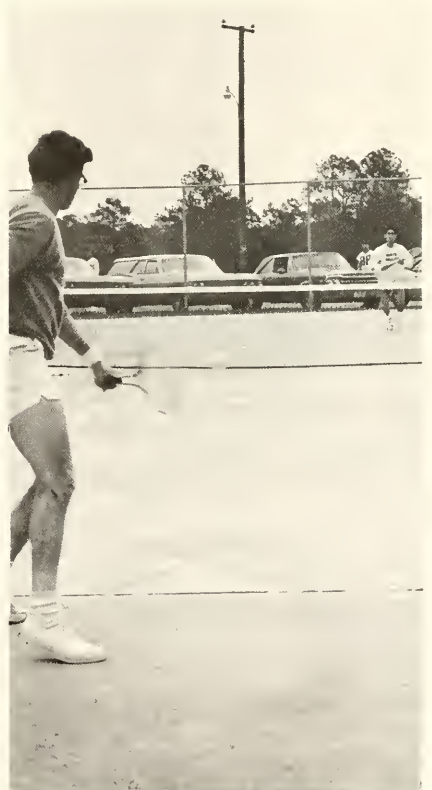

Our tennis team is a member of the "Cavalier-Tar Heels" and have a seventeen match schedule confronting them. With our support and spirit mixed with their competitive skills they should do exceedingly well this season.

Coach Green displays the latest in formal tennis wear complete with coat and tie.

He decides not to swing.

Coach Hawkins talking with the team in the dugout.

Our first game and we start off with a hit. Judging by the position of the batter, the ball should be long gone.

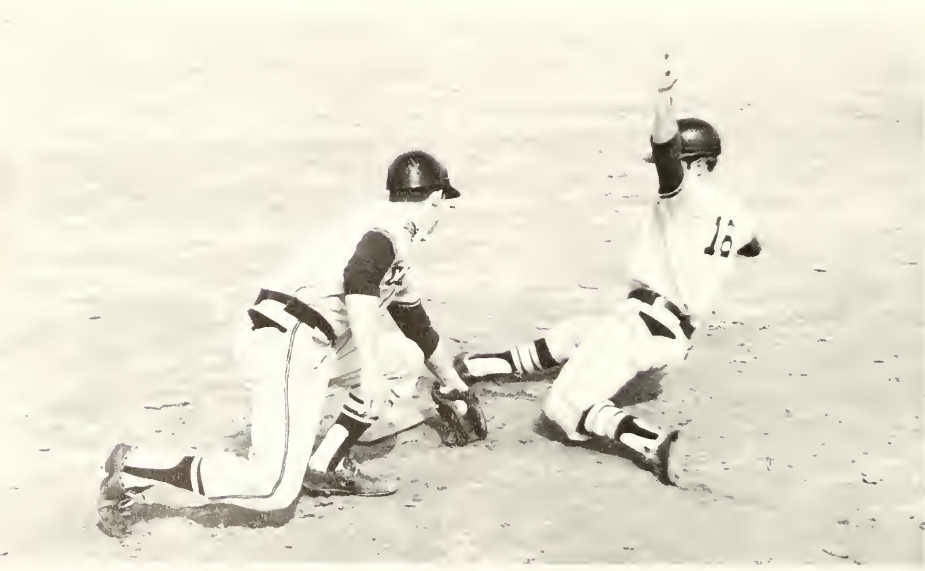

Coach goes over strategy with the team.

Another hit, and we are on base.

Coach Hawkins is giving the team a few pointers between innings.

Swings but changes his mind just in time. Judging by the catcher's glove the ball was low.

GOLF

1969

The golf team this year enjoyed a good season by having a better team with more depth. Alex Phillips was third Medalist last year and made All-American golfer. Jay Pickus seems to have a great deal of potential and played exceedingly well this year. All in all we had a better team than last year and they held to that position.

A Salute to Graphic Arts

This yearbook is a tribute to the School of Graphic Arts and those involved with it. It is an outstanding example of the school's excellent workmanship.

The staff wishes to express their appreciation to the instructors and students of Graphic Arts, who through their time and effort, made this yearbook possible.

—The Chowanoka Staff

Editor's Note

Now that the last page is done, we owe a debt of gratitude to many who helped us this year. Thanks to those who made it on time for pictures and with copy.

A special thanks to our advisors, Mr. Bill Sowell, Mr. Herman Gatewood, Mr. Charles Stevens, and to my assistant, Phil Ferguson.

It is the belief of this staff that you will be pleased with this year's publication and will enjoy it as much as we have enjoyed working on it.

The staff has worked hard and long hours and deserve special recognition for their efforts. Carol Gunter, Marianne Pugh, Margaret Sparrer, Frank Granger, Gary Whitley, all have done their jobs well.

It has been indeed a pleasure and honor to be associated with the Graphic Arts Department and to be this year's Production Editor.
